SUMMARY

I am a London based digital designer with a passion for creative collaboration and an eagle-eye for detail.

Whether it's UX, responsive web design, email build, ad-suite creation, print work or brand development; I have the ability to multi-task and work under stringent deadlines without compromising on quality.

EXPERIENCE

Web Designer, Ticketmaster
London — 2010-present

From concept to creation - Increasing ticket sales through visual design for the biggest bands, music festivals, sporting occasions and events out there, whilst simultaneously marketing the world's leading concert promoter.

Senior Web Designer, The Hemming Group
